

2020 Request for Applications Process - Youth

Welcome to the 2020 Request for Applications (RFA) for funding support to reach the needs of Youth and younger Native farmers and ranchers. Please review the 2020 RFA for further information. This document provides a list of questions as those appear within the online application submittal system. When completing the application online, the order in which questions are posed may differ from the order in which questions are posed within this written document.

If applicants use the online system, they must complete the following questions within the online application system and upload the appropriate documents as indicated. For those applicants that choose to submit in writing through regular mail and not online, applications need to answer all “yes/no” questions as well as those sections that require selections among available choices. Applicants submitting in writing should use a separate type-written document to provide additional information for all areas included within this guidance. All applicants must adhere to character limits and all questions must also be completed. Please provide any requested upload documents along with your paper submission. Please submit complete applications as soon as completed; NAAF is accepting applications on an ongoing basis throughout the open period beginning April 1, 2020 and ending September 30, 2020 at 11:59 pm CT. Application review and funding determinations will be made on an ongoing basis.
